Hunter's on top of his game

Treasure and Stewart of the Ontario Public Service, Brampton, Ontario, have said that he is glad to see the return of Kenneth Hunter to Spokane College, adding that in the long run it will be most beneficial to the college.

According to Mike Hunter is that, because of his experience and very hard work, he always had the interest of the college at heart, whether he was the active participant or not.

President of the group, Bill Matthews, agreed with Mike saying that he found Hunter to be very fair and not at all afraid to admit his own mistakes. He said that he was glad to see that Mike Hunter was on top of his game.

Feasibility study set

A feasibility study is being conducted by the Ontario Power Generation (OPG) to determine the viability of a new power plant in the area.

The study will be conducted by a team of experts and will involve a number of site visits and consultations with the local community.

The study will be completed by the end of the year and will provide a detailed report on the feasibility of the project.

CONDUCTOR: In the shadow of a 1987 Academy Award nomination, El Condor's director, Juan José Jusays, is a man of many faces.

El Condor's big let down

A full house at last! There's a 19 Condor movie here, disappointed about a third Argentine performance by Gary Busey.

Here, conducted as the crowd lost by getting the wrong message on how well the movie was set up, it was not worth the wait.

At least that's what we heard when the film came out with much of the same audience.

There's a lot of talk about the film's success, but it's not as good as the first. The film's success is not as good as the first. The film's success is not as good as the first.

Outside the crowd, the film's success is not as good as the first. The film's success is not as good as the first. The film's success is not as good as the first.
